The American Center(s) For Cures Brings Americans Hope For the Future

Our mission is to open a new pathway to discovery and focus on the single most important goal that we have for our loved ones with an illness: the need for disease cures.

Sign The Petition

When an economic crisis threatened America, Congress suddenly acted quickly and decisively. Potentially curable diseases create daily life & death challenges in every American household. It's time to attack these diseases with the same sense of urgency. Its the difference between living and dying.
